MINISTER SEEKS REFUGE WITH THE CHICKENS

Hopkins Attacked by Son of Man He Had Assaulted and Given Bad Drubbing at Richland.

[UNITED PRESS ASSOCIATED WIRE.]

Baker, Or., Dec. 17.—Report of a fist fight at Richland between the Rev. J. H. Hopkins and one or more persons reached Baker today. The minister received a drubbing.

It appears that the Rev. Mr. Hopkins, a new minister at Richland, in his sermon Sunday attacked by inuendo Councilman Jones. To this the councilman's son, Walter Jones, took exception and followed Mr. Hopkins along the road yesterday.

There was but one eye-witness to the encounter. Noble Holcomb, a stockman was driving along the road when he saw the two men fighting. The minister, he says, was knocked down and made a dash for his wagon, which was loaded with chickens, and escaped further injury.

Another report from the justice of the peace at Richland to the district attorney's office here, is that Mr. Hopkins was set upon by two men, who kicked and beat him, rendering him unconscious for some time.

Mr. Jones said over the long distance telephone today:

"This minister simply got up in the pulpit and said that I was a low down dog and that those who voted for me were no better, and that the women who voted for me were like a lot of sows in the gutter. So my boy simply got mad and beat him up."

'CAPRICE' TODAY

Mary Pickford Comes to Ye Liberty Theatre.

Daniel Frohman's Star Marks New Era in Motion Picture Circles—Popular Four-Act Production.

Today at Ye Liberty a new era of motion pictures is ushered in with the production of Daniel Frohman's four-part production, "Caprice," with Mary Pickford, the most popular motion picture actress in the world, as the star.

"Caprice," in which Mrs. Pickford made one of her greatest successes, gives Miss Pickford ample opportunity to display her wonderful versatility, and she makes the most of every line of the play. Her change from the simple mountain maiden to the cultured woman of the world is a wonderful piece of acting, and her support is admirable. Owen Moore playing opposite her in the part of the man who marries the country girl and then tires of her.

The management of Ye Liberty held a special performance yesterday afternoon before a selected audience of critics, and the universal edict was that "Caprice" is the most wonderful play in pictures ever shown in Salem. The photography is perfect, and there is an absolute steadiness to the pictures not yet acquired by other producers.

The great cost of these pictures necessitates an admission price of 20 cents for adults and 10 cents for children, the same prices that are charged in Portland and other cities where the seating capacity of the theatres admits of much greater receipts at each performance.

The evening performances will run as follows: 7:15, 8:30, 9:45, with matinees at 2:30 and 3:45. The next production, on December 24 and 25, will be James O'Neill in the five-act play "The Count of Monte Cristo."

RELIEF CORPS

At the regular business meeting of Sedgwick Relief Corps No. 1 Saturday, there will be memorial exercises in memory of the departed members of that order and G. A. R. Sedgwick Post No. 10. Also the "shut-ins" and the sick of these two orders are to be remembered with sunshine boxes. Please do not forget to bring something for this purpose.

At noon a dinner will be served in the armory by the W. R. C. to help the members of the Post do honor to the department officers, who are coming to visit the Sedgwick Post, and for the usual annual inspection of the post. Members of the corps will probably respond liberally to this notice, as they are all noted for their liberality and kindness of heart.

A concealed man is never so happy as when he is given an opportunity to place his counsel on exhibition.

Marines Awaiting Call to Arms On Warship In Mexican Waters

UNITED STATES marines were long in readiness to land in Mexico from the several battleships which patrolled the eastern and western coasts of the country. This picture shows marines in formation on one of the warships in Vera Cruz harbor. It was believed that this port was one of the keystones to the situation, as far as invasion was concerned. Ships with marines ready were also off Tampico and Tuxpan. This branch of the naval service bears a high standing and has bravely fulfilled many important details in troublous times in the past.
